

Curriculum Vitae

Xavier E. Vega

Florida International University
Department of History
Modesto Maidique Campus
Miami, Florida 33199
xvega001@fiu.edu

Education

Ph.D. History, Florida International University, In Progress

M.A. History, Florida International University, 2007

Undergraduate Certificate in Women's Studies, Florida International University, 2006

B.A. History, Florida International University, 2005

A.A. History, Miami-Dade College, 2002

Experience

Graduate Student Instructor, Department of English, Florida International University,
Spring 2010-Summer 2011 and Summer 2012-Present

Grant Writer, Bethel House Bahamian-American Museum, May 2009-Present

Teaching Assistant, Department of English, Florida International University, Fall 2009

Teaching Assistant, Department of History, Florida International University, Spring
2008-Summer 2009 and Fall 2011-Spring 2012

Grant Writer and Project Manager, Historic Hampton House Community Trust, Inc.,
January 2007-March 2009

Awards and Honors

Graduate Assistantship, Department of History, Florida International University, Spring
2008-Present

Outstanding Participation in The Hampton House Oral History Collection, Historic Hampton House Community Trust, Inc. 2009

Presentations

“Social Center of the South: The History of the Hampton House Motel,” a guest presentation for a course on the African Diaspora, Florida International University. April 9, 2008.

Articles

“ ‘Florida Never Went Away:’ The Florida Times-Union and the Hurricane of 1926,” April 2010.

“From Contraband to Freedman: Illustrations of Blacks in Harper’s Weekly during the American Civil War,” July 2009.”

“The Social Center of the South: The Social and Political History of Miami’s Booker Terrace/Hampton House Motel,” April 2008.

“The Hampton House and The Power of Place,” August 2007

“Proposal of Properties in Florida for Nomination to the National Register of Historic Places: Hampton House Motel,” August 2007.

“Historic Preservation Grants-in-Aid Application, 2008-2009 Special Category Cycle: Hampton House Motel Restoration Project,” May 2007.

“Guarding Their Republic: Northern Democrats and Opposition to Taxation in the Age of Jackson,” April 2007.